- Trademark Law
- Intellectual Property Law
- Data Protection Law
- Arbitration and Mediation

Practice Summary

Stephanie is specialized in domain name law, including domain name management and the enforcement of worldwide domain name portfolios of national and international clients. Her practice includes everything from domain name monitoring to representing clients in all types of national and international domain name disputes. In particular, Stephanie represents her clients in domain name disputes before the WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center as well as before other domain name arbitration courts worldwide. Stephanie has additionally served as an Arbitrator (Panelist) for Domain Name Dispute Resolution (UDRP proceedings) with the WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center since 2011 as well as with the Czech Arbitration Court (CAC) since 2016.

Besides, Stephanie regularly advises on all trademark matters in relation to national as well as European and IR trademarks. Her practice ranges from trademark application proceedings (also via opposition proceedings) to advising on disputes, whether by way of negotiating with third party trademark owners or through litigation.

Furthermore, Stephanie supports her clients in data protection law issues, both in the internal implementation of the legal requirements (in particular the EU-GDPR and the German Data Protection Act) and in relation to third parties, in particular vis-à-vis data protection agencies.

Finally, Stephanie works as a certified mediator and, as such, accompanies disputes between private individuals as well as between companies in all areas of law, in particular in commercial law to resolve them by way of mediation, an alternative dispute resolution method.

Representative Client Matters

- Representation of FERRERO Deutschland in various trademark application and opposition proceedings before the German Patent and Trademark Office (DPMA) and the German Federal Patent Court (BPatG) as well as before the European Intellectual Property Office (EUIPO)

- Representation of FERRERO Deutschland in numerous domain name disputes concerning national as well as international domain name owners and third parties
- Representation of an international wine producer based in France in relation to numerous trademark applications and opposition proceedings before the DPMA and the BPatG as well as before the EUIPO and before other non-German bodies
- Advise various companies from the financial sector on the implementation of the legal requirements in accordance with the EU-GDPR and resulting questions in day-to-day business matters, especially in relation to data protection agencies
